Русский мир в Австрийской Галиции в письмах очевидца

(Abstract)

This article is devoted to the position of Russian and Russian-speaking minority on the territory of Austrian Galicia from 1835 to 1861. It is based on the letters of Denis Ivanovich Zubritsky from Lviv to the Russian scientist M.P.Pogodin. The author observes some aspects of national policy in “Galician-Russia” at the pointed period. The author used the method of content analysis of scientific correspondence. The article is based on unique and little-known archival and published documents.
