Подготовка болгарских элит в Южнославянском пансионе Тодора Минкова

(Abstract)

Preparation of the Bulgarian Elites in the South Slavic Boarding School of Todor Minkov. The author examines the South Slavic Boarding School in the town of Nikolaev under the direction of the Bulgarian Todor Minkov and reveals its contribution for the education and shaping of the Bulgarian national elite in the second half of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century. From a statistical and historical perspective, he has collected and summarized valuable data on the biography, study and future professional realization of dozens of Bulgarians, many of which joint the intellectual and political elite of free Bulgaria.

Keywords: Bulgarian emigration in Southern Russia, Bulgarian national elite, Bulgarian intelligentsia, the town of Nikolaev, Todor Minkov, South-Slavic Boarding School.
